ATTORNEY COMSTOCK'S

CHAUFFEUR FINED Arrested for Driving Machine Too

Attorney Lee Robbins of Norwich represented Austin. Attorney Robbins took stenographic notes of the testimony and went into the case at length. An appeal was taken and Mrs. Neison M. Alexander, Attorney Comstock's sister, furnished bonds to the amount of $150.

Austin was arrested Monday night on complaint of Conductor Henry Mono, who claimed that he had driven his machine so close to the trolley car in Main street, near Crystal avenue, that the car had struck the conductor, torn his uniform and bruised his side. Miss Frances Alexander of Provi-dence, one of the occupants of the car, testified that a horn was blown. She said Mono jumped onto the platform. She was not certain, but thought the car did not strike the conductor.

Mrs. Alexander. Attorney Com-stock's sister, said she saw Mono jump. She didn't think the auto struck him. Miss Harriet Comstock, a sis-ter of Mr. Comstock, testified along the same line and was certain that

I. R. Blumenthal's New Purchase. A Hartford paper says: The decision to make "cean Beach his new permanent summer home prompted I. R. Blumenthal of this city to purchase a large cottage and ap adjoining corner lot on Park avenue at that popular resort. Two tennis courts are included in the purchase. The property was owned by Thomas F. Foran of New London. It is understood that the price was in the neighborhood of $15,000. Mr. Blumenthal and family have spent the summer at the beach $15,000. Mr. Blumenthal and family have spent the summer at the beach for the past 30 years. Associated with Mr. Blumenthal in the purchase were his two brothers-in-law, Alex Deuchberger and Jacob Weder of Hartford. It is the intention of the new owners to add a large flower garden and conto add a large flower garden and con-struct another tennis court.
